

Introduction to World Explorers

Gold, God and Glory

All world explorers were motivated by three reasons: gold, God and glory.

Gold

Explorers could become incredibly rich.

God

Explorers sought to spread their religion around the world.

Glory

Explorers could become very famous.

For each statement, write whether the explorer is motivated by gold, God or glory.

Hi, I want to spread the word of the Lord. The more people I convert, the better my chance of going to heaven.

Hello friend, I intend to found a new colony for my homeland. This will surely bring great honour and prestige to the king, queen and my people.

Hello there, I will become a celebrity when I return to Spain. Wherever I go, people will know my name; they will love me!

Good day! I have great debts at home. When my journey is successful, I shall be able to pay my bills and build a beautiful house for my wife and children.

Hi, I plan to discover new lands for the King. When I return, he will reward me with gold and land beyond imagination.

Hi, I plan to find a new trade route to Asia. When I return I will be so famous, all the girls will find me irresistible!

Hello, the natives in the New World believe in false gods. They must be taught about the one true god and brought into the light.

Good morning, I am setting out on this journey for one reason only: the glory of God. I must save the souls of as many people as possible. It is my solemn duty.
