

Introduction to World Explorers Map

To name the key countries and people that explored and colonised the world.

World explorers came from all parts of the world. Many, however, did not explore for their home countries. Often, they were hired for their talents and skills by kings and queens of other countries.

Introduction to World Explorers Map

Cut out the explorers and paste them on the map.

